

VOLUNTEER WORKSHOP

Theme:

Volunteer Associations:
Partners in Stewardship
Midpines/Mariposa, California
September 16-17, 2005

Hosted by:

California Wilderness Legacy Project

In partnership with

High Sierra Volunteer Trail Crew, Stanislaus Wilderness Volunteers and Sierra Club Service Trips

With support from

Forest Service-Pac(fic Southwest Region

WHO: Volunteer Associations, Board Directors and members, Interpretative Associations, Friends Group, Foundations, new start-ups, and Forest Service employees with volunteer management and related duties. Also, NPS and BLM staff and associations are encouraged and invited to participate.

PURPOSE: To provide a forum for wilderness and trail stewards and volunteer association members to share and exchange successful stewardship efforts and lessons learned along the way.

OBJECTIVES:

- Share and steal ideas.
- Network with other volunteer association members.
- To identify what is needed from the FS to make associations more effective and successful.
- Collaboration on projects in FY06 to be more effective and share resources.
- To potentially create a statewide coalition or network of volunteer organizations.

TUITION: No tuition cost for this Workshop.

Note: Tables will be provided at the workshop to exhibit brochures, products and projects.

REGISTRATION: -Contact Peter Keller to register at pckeiler@Js.fed.us or 707-562-8837. Please provide your name, organization and contact information.

LODGING & MEETING: Yosemite Bug Hostel, Midpines. <http://www.v.vosemitebug.com/index.html>
The hostel has private rooms with shared baths or private paths, tent cabins, tent sites and dorms. We have a building reserved with 22 dorm beds and conference room space. For $15 total, you'll get two nights in the dorm and all meals included. The first 22 people to register with Peter Keller and reserve these dorm beds will get the great deal. Otherwise, the lodging needs to be reserved through the hostel (1-866-826-7108) at listed prices. Also, the following link, has hotels/motels in the Mariposa area.
